

Congressman Scott invites you to become an original cosponsor for the Protecting American Jobs Act. The National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) is one of today's largest roadblocks for small business with its one-sided interpretation of U.S. labor law causing small businesses to be hesitant to invest, expand, and create jobs. The NLRB enjoys its own judge, jury, and prosecutor for all matters dealing with labor and business. With today's economy, taxpayers should not be paying for a politically-charged middleman to make job-killing, binding decisions on those falling under the NLRB Act. Stand with Congressman Scott and sponsor the removal of the NLRB's adjudicatory functions and put those decisions into the hands of court system created by the U.S. Constitution- the federal courts.

Original cosponsors currently include Rep. Westmoreland, Rep. Duncan, Rep. Collins, Rep. Crawford, Rep. Black, Rep. Kingston, Rep. Nunnelee, Rep. Huizenga, Rep. Mulvaney, and Rep. Fleischmann. If you have questions or would like to become an original cosponsor, please contact Jessica Robertson at Jessica.robertson@mail.house.gov by COB Tuesday, February 12th.
